Tyler Park Neighborhood Association's Easter Egg Hunt in Tyler Park

Saturday, March 26th at Noon

All residents are welcome to attend the annual Tyler Park Neighborhood Easter Egg Hunt. The hunt will be held Saturday, March 26th at 12 noon. One area of the park east of the bridge will be designated for each of the following age groups:

- Toddlers (under 3 years)
- Three to five year olds
- Six to eight year olds
- Nine to twelve year olds

Each child should bring a basket or bag for collecting the eggs and line up with the appropriate age group until the official start of the hunt is announced.

Special prizes to the lucky finders of the "golden eggs" will be awarded. Kids, be sure to stop at the TPNA table to register for the grand prize drawing. Adults, remember to purchase a raffle ticket for a dozen eggs-- freshly laid by the famed hens of Mossrose (owner Manny Carralero).

Please join your neighbors and greet the Easter Bunny at this fun-filled Tyler Park event.

Volunteers are needed to help prepare the park for the hunt. All volunteers should meet at the park by 10 am. -- Rebecca Watson

Join the TPNA for "The Wearin' o' the Green"

On Saturday, March 12th the Tyler Park Neighborhood Association will join the "Ancient Order of the Hibernians" in the annual St. Patrick's Day parade. The parade theme this year is "100 Years Irish Rising" which commemorates the centenary of the Easter Rising in Ireland. This occasion in 1916 was the moment when the Irish people declared themselves, and Ireland, as one true free Republic. 2016 marks the 15th appearance of the TPNA in this event. Thousands of spectators will line Bardstown Rd. and enjoy traditional Irish food and libations provided by local restaurants.

All Tyler Park residents are invited to meet at the corner of Bardstown Rd. and Rosewood Ave. at 1:30 pm. We will then walk to our assigned staging area, as parking is very limited. The parade is a great opportunity to support our beautiful neighborhood (and show off our TPNA banner). So don your green and come out to enjoy one of the most widely celebrated holidays in the world! For more information contact Rebecca Watson at rebecca.watson@twc.com or by phone at 456-4320. --Rebecca Watson

Happy spring! The weather is warming up and so is the activity in Tyler Park! While nationally presidential debates and primaries are in full-swing, we in Metro Council District 8 also have an exciting election coming up! Long-serving Councilman Tom Owen will not be running for Metro Council and there are several candidates vying for his seat. There will be a Candidate Forum on Sunday, April 17th from 2-4 pm. The place will be announced at a later date. Check the city's calendar for updates. Go to www.louisvilleky.gov, and click on "City Events" then click on "View All Events". At the Forum, you will also be able to register to vote and check your polling place! It's a one-stop shop for your local election needs, so come on out to listen, learn, ask and get involved in YOUR community!

The TPNA had our own elections at our January meeting. We bid a fond adieu to Kathy Schickli as President and thank her for her service! We will miss her boundless and infectious energy and hope that she can find time to visit us! I moved back to Louisville in 2005 after seventeen years away and made Tyler Park my home. I feel lucky every day to live in such an active, friendly, creative, walkable neighborhood. I am pleased to serve Tyler Park this year as President.

There are several other events on the horizon: First up is the St. Patrick's Day Parade on Saturday March 12th. The Tyler Park Neighborhood Association will once again be represented in the Parade. Don your green, come out and cheer us on! Easter is early this year folks! Right on the heels of the St. Pat's Day Parade will be the annual Tyler Park Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 26th at noon. A spring robin has whispered in my ear that the Easter Bunny will be making an appearance! Don't miss it! I am also excited to announce that Shakespeare in Tyler Park will be back this year! On Saturday, April 30th at 6:00 p.m. come on down to the park and catch Romeo and Juliet in the act, so to speak!

The 9th Annual Wine Tasting was a huge success! Tickets were sold out in advance! Wines and food from Italy were featured as well as several selfie spots including the leaning Tower of Pisa and two gorgeous gondolas hand-crafted by our own Mike Gramig. A huge THANK YOU to our Wine Tasting Committee for making this event a resounding success and raising money for the Tyler Park Master Plan!

A new park is in the making in Tyler Park neighborhood! A group of Beechwood Avenue neighbors have banded together to turn the vacant green space on Beechwood adjacent to the Mid-City Mall side parking lot into a pocket park. The park will be operated by the Beechwood group and open to the public. The lease for the property was recently signed and the Beechwood group is hard at work on plans for the park.

The Garden Tour Committee is also already hard at work planning this year's event. We still need gardens and we always need volunteers! If you would like your garden to be on the tour or to volunteer to "garden-sit" during the tour, please contact Terry Redden at tredden@semonin.com 454-5795 or Jeanette Westbrook at Westbrookj@aol.com 451-8207.

Our monthly Tyler Park Neighborhood Association meetings are normally held in the meeting room of the public library in the Mid-City Mall. We will be at a different meeting site in April and May due to Mall renovations. If you have an idea for an alternative meeting space, please contact me at kristennicole@hotmail.com or 287-7035. Watch our website for the alternative meeting location.

Spring is a time for renewal, rejuvenation and activity. Our neighborhood is only as good as we make it. Spring is a great time to get involved in helping to make your neighborhood the best it can be. Neighborhood association meetings are held the last Thursday of every month at 7:00 p.m. in the Highlands-Shelby Park public library. Meetings are open to everyone. We are always looking for new members and volunteers. We have several committees that you can volunteer for, so come to a monthly meeting or e-mail me to find one that suits your interests. We can always use your talents!

Lastly, in the spirit of spring and change, our website has a new address. It is: www.tylerpark.org.

I am looking forward to a great year in Tyler Park!

Ciao Neighbors!

The 9th Annual Tyler Park Neighborhood Association Wine Tasting was a smashing success with a sellout crowd attending the festive event on January 31st, at the Mid City Mall. The Italian themed event featured a wide selection of Italian wines from the Wine Market, Italian hors d'oeuvres from ValuMarket's catering department, and music by Ben Jones of Better Days Records. ValuMarket's floral department provided the beautiful flower arrangements that decorated the venue.

Many thanks go to these sponsors along with Sandy Metts and the Metts Company for providing the venue, Bazo's Restaurant, Terry Redden of Semonin Realtors and our advertisers, Drs. Young and Linehan of Art & Crafts Dental, Highland Family Dentistry and Dr. Gabor S. Vargo D.M.D., The Fish House/Café Beignet, The Jewel Box, Kaleidoscope Hair Salon, Jazzercise – Martha Brown, Clay & Cotton, and Dr. Philip W. Barber D.M.D. The wine tasting is only possible through the generosity of these local merchants, so please remember to support them. Also, many thanks go to dedicated and hard working wine tasting committee members, Jo Ann Mosier, Ann Finney, Joan Dubai, Ken Baker, Rebecca Watson and Mike Gramig, and the numerous volunteers who put the event together.

Proceeds from the fund raising event totaled almost $4000, a new record, and benefited the Tyler Park Master Plan. The proceeds are designated towards the construction of an American with Disabilities Act compliant walkway on the hilltop along Tyler Park Drive between Tyler Parkway and Edgeland.

The Tyler Park Master Plan along with the wine tasting event received a big boost from a full page article written by Courier Journal reporter, Martha Elson, which appeared in the newspaper on the Sunday prior to the event. The story, entitled "Group seeks to upgrade, restore Tyler Park," featured the history of Tyler Park including vintage photos and a description of the Tyler Park Master Plan. To see the full story, use your internet search provider and search for "Tyler Park" plus the number "79125870". -- Jo Shipley

We Are Looking For TPNA History

A volunteer organization is completely filled with volunteers, and volunteers are not always completely organized. So... we have lost large portions of our history and we need your help finding it.

This is a call to the community at large to lend or donate documents or pictures to TPNA so we can build historical archives. Send us an email at brundige@iglou.com:

- ◆ Use Archive Donation as the email subject.
- ◆ Describe the materials you have, and whether you want to donate them or lend them to be copied.
- ◆ Tell us the best way to contact you to pick up the materials.

Our goal is to have at least one physical copy of every newsletter the association has printed, and a complete list of the officers who served in each year. We have a collection of recent newsletters and a partial list of officers, but are missing at least some of the officers for 1974-1983, 1995-1998, and 2004.

We are also interested in materials from other community organizations that served our neighborhood before 1974, such as the old Tyler Park Club, news clippings, photographs, and personal accounts of life and events in the area.

The long term plan is to gather what we can, take an inventory with summary information, and then pass the materials to an organization that can maintain the documents in a safe, professionally managed archive. -- Ray Brundige

Researching History

A sense of place is one element that makes a house a home. Native sons and daughters build that sense with memories like “That’s where I grew up” or “went to school” or “married”. The rest of us must rely on the memories we can find. Our new neighbors, Shawn and Stephanie Reilly, were engaged in that search when someone told them I had written pieces for this newsletter,¹ and Shawn called me. So here is a bit of memory for all of you, courtesy of the Reilly’s.

The memory came from a column that ran for a brief time in the Louisville Herald-Post. A staffer writing as “The Neighborhood Reporter” wandered Louisville to ask residents who they were, what they did, and what they knew about the place where they were living. The stories appeared under the title “Your Street and Mine”. One of the streets covered in the spring of 1933 was Tyler Parkway.²

Most of the story rambled pleasantly along about the people. The J. L. Schan family at 1801 had two daughters. The Thompsons at 1819 had three children. The Klaphekes at 1633 had a son whose buddy was the Bleiweiss boy at 1816. A man named Henry Bornhauser had built the brick bungalow at 1817 eight years before. The Frank L. Bruckhauser family lived at 1811. Charles W. Hesson at 1805 wrote poetry.

Nice enough, but the more interesting tidbit was that the six “frame houses that first strike your eye” had been moved to develop Windsor Place. Other than stating that one belonged to T. F. Wilson at 1815 and another to L. F. Schuster at 1829, the story gave no details. The photo for the story in fact showed the houses at the other end from 1629 toward Bardstown Road.

The story passes basic fact checking. The city had several house moving firms in the early 1900’s.³ Windsor Place was designed as a high-end subdivision made of brick and other solid materials.⁴ The Schuster family who had owned that land had had six or seven rental houses on their street, called Schuster Court. Assuming the rentals were frame houses, they would have had to be moved. The L. F. Schuster mentioned in the Herald was a member of the family and also the son-in-law of Mary Herp, whose land was the Bardstown Road end of Tyler Parkway.

The next round of fact checking does not fare as well. Leo Schuster’s house at 1829 was part of his wife’s inheritance from Mary Herp and its location was accordingly shown on the 1904 plat for Mary’s subdivision and also on a 1905 insurance map kept at the University of Kentucky. It is unlikely the house was moved for Windsor Place, platted in 1910.

What I suspect happened is that the reporter or his informants knew of the connections and assumed Leo Schuster’s house must have been one of the houses that had been moved. Oddly enough that lends credence to the general idea that some frame houses were moved – but which ones were they?.

We have no way to tell. The moves could have been at any time during the construction of Windsor Place. Any records that might have been required for house moving are long gone, as are most building permits.

My conclusion is to show a newer version of the photo that ran in 1933, and to sympathize with The Neighborhood Reporter’s decision to skip the history and talk about the appealing little kids on the street.

Mike at Cardeck

Let me introduce you to Mike Van Meter, owner of Cardeck, 1260 Baxter, (across the street from the rear of the Mid-City Mall). Mike is one of the most versatile, talented people you'll ever meet! He's an excellent mechanic, but his talents are much broader than that. He's a musician, a remodeler, and a wake-boarder!! Let me tell you more about his skills. He has his own five person band which he calls "Mary, Mary." (So named for his wife of many years, Mary Beth.) He plays guitar. This past January they played at Headliners, and this March you can see and hear them as they play in our neighborhood St. Patrick's Day Parade. They used to play full-time until he opened his own shop. Now they only play occasionally.

Another passion is wake-boarding. You say, "What's that?" I hadn't heard of it either but Mike has great pictures! It's similar to water skiing but without skis; only a small surfboard. Mike grew up during the summers on Rough River, and became a water-baby. There, with his grandfather as his mentor, he also learned "how to swing a hammer." In other words, how to take things apart and put them back together.

After graduating from St. Xavier High School in 1981, Mike got his first job at Bill Collins Ford where his mom worked. He had been working there part-time during high school, and became full-time after graduation. He stayed there two years. After that, he worked at several other auto repair shops until he opened his present shop.

Mike opened the shop on Baxter in December, 1995. He had been working at the downtown Ford dealership as the head mechanic when he decided to open his own place. He saw an ad in the CJ for a two-bay garage shop. He reports that when he first saw it, it had no insulation and one light bulb hanging from the middle ceiling. He did all the necessary improvements himself, and now it's well-lit, and well insulated. He also designed the logo for his shop. It's a giant spark plug! Notice it the next time you drive by. It fits the store perfectly.

Mike has had helpers but presently works alone, except for Sarah, also a mechanic, who comes in about five days a month. Mike has lots of business and is very successful. Indeed, Ray and Tom of the famous NPR radio show, Car Talk, rate him the top mechanic for our area!! Guess what? They're right!!

As I said earlier, Mike is married to Mary Beth, and they have two adult daughters. When he first opened his shop, his two daughters were in private high school; so to supplement his income, he did bathroom and kitchen remodeling. He worked after-hours during the week and week-ends. Fortunately, he no longer needs to do that.

Here's something else I learned about Mike. He meets his 87 year-old mother for lunch each Thursday. He reports he's been doing this for years!! Any man who takes time for his mother is top-notch in my book!! And know this, his mom is still working full-time at Bill Collins!! The apple doesn't fall far from the tree.

Excepting for paint, body repairs and tires, CarTeck can handle any other repair issues. He has a web-site, Cardeck.net. His email is also creative: mahalo1719@yahoo.com. (Mahalo is Hawaiian for thank you.) Finally, his phone number is: 502-459-2010. His hours are 8:30-5, Monday – Friday.

I have been taking my car to Mike for many years. I can tell you from experience, he has integrity and intelligence. He will keep your car running for years, as he has with mine. I hope we have Mike on Baxter for years to come. --Phyllis Costello

Park Planning Committee Report Spring 2016

As we await Punxsutawney Phil's forecast, we prepare for spring in Tyler Park. So far, the sledding hill and its new trees have survived intact. The pathway at the top, parallel to Edenside remains in sad shape and we await attention by Metro Parks (more than a year ago we were promised its repair.)

The January Wine Tasting was a tremendous success and broke all records. Well done, Wine Tasting Committee! The Wine Tasting Event proceeds are dedicated to the Park Fund.

We have scheduled an Olmsted volunteer maintenance day for Saturday, March 19. All neighbors are invited. On this day we will have a group of students from Bellarmine providing service. We will meet at 10:00 AM and work until about noon. Several other dates are being scheduled and when they're set we will publicize them.

When the weather breaks we will be meeting the new Parks Director, Seve Ghose, for a tour of Tyler Park to introduce him to the park and the variety of projects that we hope to undertake in the near future, continuing our efforts to make the Tyler Park Master Plan a reality.

Hopefully the 5 more weeks of winter, or 5 more weeks until spring – whichever comes first - will pass quickly! -- Mike Gramig
