Fall Festival '96 lightly attended, Board seeks suggestions from residents

The annual TPNA Fall Festival was held in Tyler Park on Sunday September 8, 1996. The rains stopped and the sun came out. The food was ready, Karen Dean again was a hit with the kids, the Foree Wells band followed with a lively beat and the big band sound from Ovation created a mellow mood to end the entertainment for the day. The Zoo put their raptors through all their tricks. The names of 64 winners were drawn in the annual Raffle and prizes for those who were not present were delivered by the end of the next day. There was just one thing missing, people. Of course, people are necessary if success is to be realized. TPNA Board of Directors were concerned and accept the fact that publicity needs to be improved. Perhaps there is a need to change the kind of activities to be included. All residents are asked to submit suggestions to the Board, Box 4452, Louisville, Ky. 40204.

In the past, profits from the Fall Festival supported other activities during the year. This year there were no profits, cerns on the minds of anyone in attendance.

Those who will be attending the Annual Meeting are requested to bring a desert with them to be shared with others at the end of the formal meeting. Beverages will be furnished. This will be time you can meet neighbors you don't already know.

Remember, it is important for you to be present at the Annual Meeting for the TPNA. If the Association is to provide services to the community, there is a need for broad representation of the residents. Anyone willing to assist on specific projects, yet not be a Board member (which calls for attendance at monthly meetings), indicate your interest at the bottom of the membership application. Board members provide leadership, many people are needed to be on committees sponsoring various activities or projects.
