TYLER PARK'S ANNUAL PICNIC

It feels like summer is here, and that, of course, means the Tyler Park Neighborhood Picnic isn't far away. It will be June 27 from 4 to 8 p.m. (Raindate July 11). Everyone is hoping for the success of last year - good food, good entertainment, and plenty of sunshine.

The Bagpipe Players are returning this year to kick off the picnic. If you missed them last year, make it a point to come early this year. They will play from approximately 4 to 5 p.m.

And, ponies in the park?? That's right! This year, there will be pony rides for the children. Meanwhile Mom & Dad can cheer for their favorite team in the volleyball tournament or stop by the Louisville Ballet's information booth. As always, there'll be plenty of good food and drink. Tyler Park t-shirts, mugs, and notecards will be available for purchase. If you have a t-shirt, wear it!

The special theme this year is homecoming, in keeping with our oral history project. Invite friends and relatives who have moved away. Mark your calendar!!!

RESIDENTS ATTEND HEARING ON SUNSET EAST LICENSE

About 40 people, including many residents of Tyler Park, attended a hearing on the issuance of a liquor license to Sunset East Tavern, 1318 Bardstown Rd. Alderman Mike Carrell and residents of nearby Windsor Place and Bellwood Ave. spoke against issuing the license, saying there have been more problems since the tavern moved its entrance to the rear of the building. The neighborhood association supports the residents in this matter.

There have been several BURGLARIES and THEFTS in the neighborhood during the past three months. TPNA hosted a Crime Prevention Seminar on Sunday, April 18, which was poorly attended. If you are interested in revitalizing or forming a Block Watch Program in your area, please contact Mr. B. G. Richardson at 459-6758 or Dinah Smith at 459-7428.

The GREENING Committee planted 115 trees throughout the neighborhood this spring. They will return to mulch, stake, and fertilize the trees. If a tree was planted in your yard, remember to water it thoroughly! If a tree appears to be dead, continue to water. All trees are guaranteed by the nursery, and any dead trees will be replaced in the fall. THANKS to all those who helped with this project.

THE LOUISVILLE BALLET whose offices and rehearsal studios are now in the Tyler Park Neighborhood (1300 Bardstown Rd.), will have a booth at the Tyler Park Picnic, and will offer Louisville Ballet posters for sale, a drawing for a pair of tickets to opening night of their 1982-83 season, and subscription information. They are looking for people who will organize a coffee or cocktail subscription party in their home, for the ballet. Call Joan Patchen at 456-4520.

New FARMERS MARKET at Deer Park Baptist Church (1733 Bardstown Rd.) WEDNESDAY afternoons, sponsored by Bardstown Rd. Tomorrow.

CAMP PIOMINGO (Otter Creek Park) July 24-25 for boys & girls, ages 9-14. Hiking, swimming, good cooking, visit through Morgan's Cave, log cabin sleeping, transportation provided. Cost is $12, payment by 6-15. Register at 451-3695.
